OLD BUSINESS:

Krug's pheasants in the school project – tabled

Perkinstown Winter Sports Area lease - tabled

Land Stewardship Conference

Will notify members at the banquet to see if any youth are interested in attending on a CWRC sponsorship

Member's Banquet

Rebecca reported the membership number were right on par with last year, should be around 130 total for door prizes

Tom Duell, Gloria and Mark C are the banquet raffle committee

Guns: the banquet committee has decided to go with Sparky's Sport Shop in Colby for his price, willingness to register the firearms at the event and for his donation of a pistol Committee asked if a free Valentine's Raffle should be done – yes. Ask Holly/Ron.

Rebecca requested one walk-around gun be changed to less valuable prize. It was decided to go with a Valentine's Spa Package including a GC, bottle of wine and flowers. She will take care of getting this arranged.

KCK Raffle: it was decided to donate all of the proceeds of the bow/gun raffle to KCK

Outhouse Race

Rebecca gave summary from Eric's notes: tractor for shuttle donated (use) by Neimuth Implement of Stetsonville; Need good drivers for this task

Tent has been arranged from MEC Rental in Wausau for $450, this is $50 less than last year and the tent is ten feet wider, heaters are available for additional $80

Otis has made 432 polish sausages and has charged the club $0.62 each

Otis would also like to make jerky to sell at the bar

It was noted to order more hot dogs this year for the kids

Homemade soups are still a go; Loni D, Beth Somers, Rebecca Z are all bringing one

NEW BUSINESS:

none

Banquet bucks goes to Mike Fleischman (absent) increases to $270 on Saturday, February 12 at the annual member's banquet
