

Chequamegon Wildlife and Recreation Club Meeting

Friday, September 9, 2011 –called to order at 7:09pm P Town Saloon

Board of directors: Eric Zuleger, Gloria Carpenter, Mark Carpenter, Ron Sromek, Curt Gabert
(absent: Brian Krug, Harold Lee, Tonia Sromek)

No agenda additions

Motion to approve the agenda by Mark C, seconded by Curt G

Motion to approve August minutes by Eric Z, seconded by Ron S

Motion to approve August treasurer's report by Eric Z, seconded by Gloria C

OLD BUSINESS:

Senior Fishing Day – had 72 participants, 10 no shows (due to hot weather), had extra pontoons Perkinstown Winter Sports Area parking lot project – Dave Lemke asked if community members would be interested in making firewood for the chalet, Ron noted that there was a lot of dirt on wood, Lemke noted that the project is on hold due to wetland proximity

Snowshoes for PWSA – Brian Krug spoke with Hallgren's local snowshoe company and the price would be around $50-$60, noted

Vicki recommended we ask them for a donation at banquet

Library donations – distributed to members for delivery

NEW BUSINESS:

Pig Roast – Mark met with Bob Knapp, he has no problem with Otis cooking, he is concerned about food safety, also concerned about burnt potatoes, normal rental $1,000 hall rental, $100 for cooler, $50 stoves, Bob said he would give it to the club for $500, there was a discussion about the bar proceeds and the bartender, Bob will take care of hall and bar while the club will take care of the kitchen

Noted: Tonia Sromek is missing the liner from her roaster following the 2010 pig roast

Members: start thinking about what to raffle at the event

Otis requested posters, Rebecca will send them to him

Roaster donated by Jim Peters for the club

Gilman Parade – Otis is taking his spit to pull in the parade

DONATION REQUESTS:

none

Banquet bucks goes to Scott Brandt (absent) increases to $150 on Friday, October 14

Motion to adjourn by Curt G, seconded by Eric Z

Adjourned at 7:41 pm