A "Little" outdoors day

Otis and Deb Gallett hosted the Big Brothers, Big Sisters Outdoors Day on Sunday, July 25. Outdoor activities included casting, knot tying, fishing and an educational nature hike which included a furbearer demonstration. Lunch was campfire all-a-mode with all the fixings to make your own pudgy pies, hot dogs, s'mores and more.

Van de Berg summed the day up, "All of the Bigs and Littles had a great time. It was all very interesting, interactive, and well presented. CWRC has an awesome group of giving, helpful volunteers. I appreciated all of the interaction with the kids. I don't even know how many times I heard 'Who needs a worm?' CWRC definitely made it memorable. Plus, the weather was perfect. Thank you!" NOVEMBER MEETING ONE WEEK EARLY

Friday, November 5 at 7:00 pm at P Town Saloon's Meeting Facility

Seniors fishing on Kathryn Lake as part of CWRC's Annual Senior Fishing Day

Don't forget our seniors

With all the attention of sportmen's groups going toward youth and the future of hunting and fishing, we often overlook our most important outdoorsmen and women, our seniors. Those who paved the way for the outdoor recreation opportunities we enjoy today. That is what CWRC's Senior Fishing Day is all about. Honoring seniors by providing an opportunity. A chance to go out fishing for a few hours, enjoy some live, good ol' country music and relax and visit over a delicious dinner.

On August 7, 90 seniors attended our annual event on Kathryn Lake in Perkinstown. Pontoon owners from near and far brought their boats and guided seniors around the lake. Otis and Deb Gallett prepared their famous grilled fish and chicken dinner with all the fixings brought in by club members and attendees. It truly was another rewarding experience for everyone who helped make this day a success. Read more and view photos online.

CWRC event gets national coverage

CWRC's popular Perkinstown Outhouse Race is being featured in a national marketing campaign by the Wisconsin Department of Tourism as a "Unique and Unusual Wisconsin Winter Event." We couldn't agree more! The big day is Saturday, February 26, 2011, but now is the time to get your outhouse built for this hilarious family event.

Annual Fall Raffle & Pig Roast Saturday, November 20, 2010

Dot & Jerry's Ballroom, Hwy 64 West of Gilman
Pig Roast Served at 5 pm, Raffles & Prizes All Night!

There's still time to sell tickets for CWRC's biggest fundraiser of the year, our Fall Raffle and Pig Roast. More importantly, WE NEED MORE PEOPLE TO VOLUNTEER THIS YEAR TO WORK A RAFFLE TABLE. It's an easy way to get involved in the club! The commitment is minimal!! Please call Holly at 715-785-7595 or Rebecca at 715-427-1002 to sign up to help. Also, set up for the event will take place on Friday, November 19 at noon. There are items to haul from the club storage shed to the hall, and tables and raffles need to be arranged.

The 2010 Pig Roast will see a few changes including the higher valued guns, a mystery raffle and some really nice on-site raffles to appeal to both men and women. Please go to our website and print out the poster to hang up at your local businesses. And tell your friends and neighbors about this fun night.

Thanks to everyone who already sold and turned in their tickets. If you can not bring your raffle tickets to the pig roast, please mail them to: Holly Sromek, CWRC Treasurer, W11114 County Rd M, Medford, WI 54451 as soon as possible.
